Employment Application

Thank you for your interest in the exciting opportunities available at the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory! Specific information about current job opportunities at LBNL may be found at <http://jobs.lbl.gov/>.

Please print legibly (or type), complete all sections of this Employment Application, and bring it with you to your interview.

Section 1: Contact Information

Print or type your name, address, and contact information (phone, fax, email address).

Section 2: Employment History

List your most recent position first. Attach additional pages if necessary. Include military and major volunteer experience at the end of this section. List significantly different positions with the same employer separately. You may exclude the names of organizations that reveal your race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, or characteristics of any other protected category. Salary history is required prior to receiving a job offer from the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. Please help us expedite offers by including this information on your application.

Section 3: Educational History

List the schools you have attended beyond high school. Include business, technical, military, professional, college and university.

Section 4: Additional Required Information

Special Instructions for Conviction History (a conviction will not necessarily disqualify you for employment): You may omit the following: (1) Traffic violations for which the fine imposed was $300.00 or less except in the case of positions requiring driving; (2) Any offense settled in juvenile court or referred to the youth authority; (3) Any incident sealed under the California Welfare and Institutional Code, Section 7812 or Penal Code, Section 1203.45; or (4) Any conviction specified in Health and Safety Code Section 11361.5 that pertains to various marijuana offenses.

The Ernest Orlando Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory is an equal opportunity employer committed to the development of a diverse workforce.
